Graham Kendrick on Tour

Ever one for seeing the bigger picture, Graham Kendrick has announced plans to tour his latest album in the run up to Christmas this year, bringing fresh insight and opportunities to the season.

As Graham explains, the decision was a logical one to make; 'Every year since I wrote and recorded Rumours of Angels I have looked forward to writing another set of songs for the Christmas season. This year at last I have felt the time is right and been able to make it a priority. It is quite a challenge for a songwriter writing for the Christmas season, because so much has already been done - it is hard to be original! However I was quickly encouraged with a flow of lyrical concepts and musical ideas, and ended up with more songs than I could fit in.'

The 18 date tour will take in churches, cathedrals, theatres and town halls. Expect Graham's trademark inspiration and intuition as he narrates the story of the nativity through song.

Dreaming of a Holy Night is available from Fierce! Distribution.
